

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

WHEN YOU WRITE A STORY

Tips for Organizing and Planning

- Introduce the main characters and setting.
- Use details to describe the characters and setting.
- Tell the story problem or situation.
- Use time words or phrases to tell the events of the story in order.
- Keep to the main events of your story. Take out any events or details that are not important to the reader.

